Dear Upasika Wangmo, Upasaka Richard and the Faithful devotees of the Buddha-Sasana.

First of all, I wish that may this new year bring you all a lot of Happiness, Prosperity, wealth, health, peace of mind and progress toward the Dhamma until the final liberation of Nibbana.

My name is Samanera Visuddho, I'm 17 years old Studying at Mahabodhi Monastic institute (Bengaluru), I'm from Arunachal Pradesh (Northeast of India). I belong to middleclass family, so my mother is a teacher and my father is a Farmer, But since they are Buddhist follower from generation, they encouraged me to become a monk so at the age of 8 in 2015 I ordained as a monk at Mahabodhi Namsai, after studying there for 4 years I came to Mahabodhi Bangalore for my higher study.

In 2023 academic year I was mainly studying on

1) The manual of Abhidhamma,

2) Samanna Phala Sutta (the fruits of the Homeless life)

3) Shasanavataranaya, Where I have learn why it is so important to live a moral and a discipline life as a monk while receiving the requisites offered by the devotees, in this book it is given that an immoral bhikkhu who receives and make use of the offerings made by the devotees to the Moral Bhikkhu is like taking a loan and he have to repay the loan in the future birth. and

4) Comprehensive Pali course and

Apart from my academic subject studies I byheart the Bhikkhupatimokkha and Dhammapada reading some Dhamma books. In 2023 I have attended and practised various meditation courses which benefited me a lot. I was mainly engaged in knowing and seeing my Mind, maintaining silence, practising the Sila, and to be at a present moment while focusing mainly on our Breath. I have also learned how to get Self-motivation in Monk's life when we become demotivated.

I am also very inspired by our Guruji Most Ven. Acharya Buddharakkhita Bhanteji. He started the Mahabodhi organisation with only 3 monks and today thousands of people are getting benefited through various dhamma activities and humanitarian activities. I want to learn dhamma and share my knowledge with other seekers and help them in any way that I can.

In Future I want to be a great monk and a humble servant of the Buddha, so saying these much I express my deepest gratitude to Ms. Wangmo Dixey, Dr. Richard Dixey, all the humble devotees of the Buddhasasana And also the members and supporters of LBDFI, for your supports & care to the Sangha, so that in order they will protect the Tipitaka and the Buddhasasana.

May by the grace of the Buddha, Dhamma, Sangha, Bada bhanteji and other senior Monks surround your life with happiness, wealth, health, prosperity, peace of mind, and by practising Sila, Samadhi & Panna may you all grow in Ariyan path until the final liberation of Nibbana.

Sadhu! Sadhu! Sadhu!
